

Exciting Things Ahead for NorCalUltras & RYP Wear!

We have some exciting news to share! Fit 2 Run, Inc Owner (NorCalUltras) Julie Fingar will now operate RYP Wear with her incredible team. Julie's background of marketing and business, her connections, passion for fitness and running will help take RYP Wear to the next level. We're excited for the future and this is the start of even greater things ahead.

"Julie has been a part of RYP Wear since the beginning," said RYP Wear's Founder Sandra Ross. "The transition to Julie and her team makes so much sense for several reasons. RYP Wear needs a team that can grow and nurture the brand, so it can reach its full potential."

"Sandra will always be the heart and soul of this company," said Julie Fingar, Fit 2 Run, Inc. owner. "We're excited to carry on her vision for RYP Wear."

Why RYP Wear Rocks

RYP Wear grows from the passion to stay fit and to create athletic wear that fits, functions, and inspires women to go the distance.

The race and touring skirts have traveled everywhere from the Western States 100 Mile Endurance Run, the John Muir Trail, 50 milers, 50Ks, marathons, tons of training miles and races of all distances. They've also taken long walks on the beach, golf courses and have fired it up on tennis courts while looking fashionable and performing beautifully.

Fun fact: When Sandra founded RYP Wear, she used to make the skirts herself, and Julie still has her first prototype!
